arguments without any help or advice from anyone outside its Team. The Team Coach may only provide general advice to the Team.

9. Memorial Format

- 9.1. Each Team shall submit their Written Memoranda in a Word format (DOC or DOCX format), A4 size paper. The Written Memoranda shall be in Times New Roman, size 12. Footnotes (OSCOLA Reference style) shall be in Times New Roman, size 10. Each page shall have a margin of 2 cm/ 0.79 inches on every side of the text. The text shall use double line spacing. Footnotes shall be single-spaced.
- 9.2. Each Memorandum (Prosecution and Defence) shall not exceed 12 pages, excluding the cover page, table of contents, list of authorities and list of abbreviations. The cover page shall be in accordance with the sample provided on the FIS Official Website.
- 9.3. Memorial Pages shall be numbered. No information identifying the Team Members, their university, or country may appear in the Written Memoranda, including cover pages. The Team Number allocated to the team shall be used.

10. Submission of Memorial

- 10.1. The Written Memoranda shall be uploaded on the Memorial Submission page available on the FIS Official Website not later than Sunday, 30 April 2023, 23:59 East African Standard Time. No late submissions will be accepted.

11. Memorial Content

- 11.1. The Memorial must contain the following parts, in the following order:
 - i. Cover Page;
 - ii. Table of Contents;
 - iii. List of Abbreviations
 - iv. List of Authorities;
 - v. Statement of Jurisdiction;
 - vi. Pleadings; and
 - vii. Conclusion/Prayers.

12. Grading of Memorials

- 12.1. Independent experts shall mark the memorials. The names of the Universities to which the memorials belong shall not be disclosed to the independent experts.

13. Oral Phase

INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN MOOT COURT COMPETITION

- 13.1. The teams which will submit the memorials in time will qualify for the oral rounds. Each of the teams is to argue their cases in an oral round in the preliminary level twice; once as prosecution and once as a defence. The top 16 teams with the highest marks will then proceed to the rounds of 16. Eight winning teams then square off in the quarterfinals, with the top four teams moving on to the semifinals and the best two to the finals. In case of a tie in points in the preliminary rounds, the organising committee will consider the memorial results to decide the team to proceed to the next round.
- 13.2. Hearings will be recorded by the Organisers. The quarter finals, semi-finals and finals will be live-streamed. Teams are prohibited from recording hearings without the prior agreement of the organisers, bench and the competing Team. The timetable for hearings will be published on the FIS Official Website before the competition. Additional instructions regarding the organisation of the digital hearings will be provided by the Organisers at least two weeks before the competition. Teams shall comply with the instructions.

14. Order of Pleadings

- 14.1. The order of the pleadings in each oral round at all levels of the Competition is as follows: Prosecution team, Defense team, rebuttal by Prosecution team, Surrebuttal by Defense team. Both team members must act as oralists during any session, including during quarter-final, semi-final and final rounds. No team may argue for longer than 35 minutes (including rebuttal and surrebuttal) during the preliminary, quarter-final, semi-final and final rounds. One oralist may not use more than 25 minutes during the preliminary, quarter-final, semi-final or final rounds. Rebuttal/Surrebuttal may not exceed 5 minutes. Only one team member has the opportunity for rebuttal/surrebuttal.
- 14.2. New issues cannot be raised in the rebuttal and sur-rebuttal (rebuttals). All issues raised by the Prosecution during the main presentation may be discussed during the rebuttal. All issues raised by the Defence during the main presentation and rebuttal may be addressed during the surrebuttal. No objection is allowed during presentation.
- 14.3. For the quarter-finals, the distribution of roles (Prosecution or Defence) will be determined by drawing lots. For the Semi-Finals, and the Finals, teams will represent the role that they have not represented in the quarter-final. When two teams pleading against each other had the same role during the quarter-final, the distribution will be determined by drawing lots.

15. Technological Requirements

INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN MOOT COURT COMPETITION

- 15.1. Teams shall ensure they have access to the necessary materials to participate in the competition, including a laptop, microphone, video camera, and stable internet connection. Team Members are allowed to use electronic devices, such as laptops and iPads/tablets. Phones & watches are not allowed to be used for purpose of oral submission. Team Members pleading shall turn their cameras on for the entire duration of the hearing. Only the microphones of the person speaking will be activated.
- 15.2. Team Members are prohibited from sharing their screens or presenting any materials. No information, signs or unique physical locations identifying the Team Members, their university, or country shall appear on the screen. Any virtual backgrounds must be approved by the Organisers at least two weeks before the start of the competition.

16. Individuals allowed in the Virtual Court Room

- 16.1. The following individuals are allowed to join the digital hearing:
 - a. The Bench
 - b. The Bench Clerk
 - c. Team Members presenting the arguments
 - d. The Organisers, and
 - e. Other members of the competing teams and their Coach
- 16.2. Teams may request authorisation for observers (such as family members or representatives of their university) to be provided with an external link. No more than three observers can be designated for each Team. Team Members pleading can choose to be in the same room or in different locations. The Team Coach is not permitted to be in the same room as the Team Members pleading.

17. Technical Challenges

- 17.1. If Team Members are experiencing technical difficulties, they must inform the Organisers immediately. If a Team fails to join the hearing, the hearing will proceed ex parte. The attending teams will present their oral pleadings and be scored by the judges. An ex parte hearing (upon approval by organizing committee) may also be scheduled for the Team that could not appear due to technical difficulties. In exceptional circumstances, the Organisers may reschedule the entire hearing.

18. Disqualifications and Penalties

- 18.1. The Organising Committee has the power to disqualify a team on the basis of violations of these Rules or the spirit of the Competition. It also has the power to impose penalties, in the form of subtractions from the marks awarded, not exceeding 20 points for each violation. Judges may propose disqualification or penalties, but these measures will only take effect once they have been endorsed by the Organising Committee.

INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN MOOT COURT COMPETITION

- 18.2. When the issue of disqualification or penalties arises, the Organising Committee, on its own motion or as a result of a team complaint, must ascertain the facts of the situation in order to determine whether a violation of the Rules has occurred. A team initiating a complaint must give notice immediately after the occurrence of the perceived violation and or infraction to the Organising Committee and the team against whom the complaint is brought. If on its own motion, the Organising Committee investigates a possible violation, it must give timely notice to the team concerned. The concerned team will be allowed to reply to the complaints made. Where judges intend to propose disqualification or the imposition of penalties, they must inform the teams accordingly and give them time to respond at the end of a particular round.
- 18.3. Complaints pertaining specifically to oral pleadings must be submitted to the Organising Committee within one hour of the completion of the round in which the alleged violation occurred. Memorial and oral pleading penalty points will be assessed against the total score awarded by the judges to the team concerned in the particular round.

19. Grounds for Disqualification and Penalties

- 19.1. The Organising Committee may disqualify a team or impose a penalty against a team for behaviour that substantially prejudices the Competition, including the following:
- a. scouting;
 - b. late submission of memorials to the Organising Committee;
 - c. failure to comply with memorial length and form requirements;
 - d. communication between counsel table and any person (other than judges) during the oral pleadings;
 - e. engaging in poor sportsmanship;
 - f. revealing the identity of a team to the judges of a session before and after that session has taken place; and
 - g. dishonesty or other serious breaches of the spirit of the Competition.

20. Modification of the Rules

INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN MOOT COURT COMPETITION

- 20.1. The Organisers reserve the right to modify the Rules at any time without prior notice. Modifications will immediately be posted on the FIS Official Website and sent to the Teams for compliance.
